

THE
ANTI-CRUELTY
SOCIETY

A Commitment to Caring Since 1899

Same and Different

Think of everything you know about people, and then think of everything you know about a pet. Some of those things are the same, and some of those things are different. Write the thing that only people can do in the box on the left. Write the things that only a pet can do in the box on the right. In the middle box, write things that pets and people can both do.

Here are some suggestions you can use:

Beg
Math
Swim
Play

Eat
Feel Frightened
Drink Water
Ride a Bike

Tail Wagging
Go to the Movies
Cough
Jump

Go to the Doctor
Use a Fork
Whine
Sleep

The illustration shows three boxes for writing, each with five horizontal lines. Above the left box are drawings of a boy and a girl. Above the middle box is a drawing of a boy petting a dog. Above the right box are drawings of two dogs.
