On The Cover

Our building at 157 W. Grand is the oldest part of the block-long complex that is The Anti-Cruelty Society. Built in the 1930s, this portion of our building houses our clinic and administrative offices. Other portions of The Anti-Cruelty Society were built in the 1950s, the 1980s, and, most recently, 2001 which saw the opening of our Education and Training Center.

President's Voice

In March, The Anti-Cruelty Society will turn 110.

Celebrations throughout the year will recognize this historic event and we hope you will join us.

As I write this amidst the celebrations, I pause to consider the significance of this event. For the past 110 years, The Anti-Cruelty Society has been a compassionate and reliable friend to the animals. And in these difficult economic times when we see companies and organizations—both venerable as well as new—closing their doors, I am proud to say that The Anti-Cruelty Society remains strong.

Although the past 110 years have seen major changes in the way we help, one thing remains consistent: our commitment to being Chicago's comprehensive, open door humane society. To achieve such a goal, we need to have solid programs and vision. The addition of our second rehabilitation and treatment center, Virginia Butts Berger Cat Clinic, last year has helped lower euthanasia rates and increase the number of animals we are able to place for adoption. Innovations such as Charlotte's Cat Corner (our cageless cat adoption rooms) and our Bully Buddies program (the adoption program designed to find special dogs their own special homes) demonstrate new ways of increasing adoptions. Ground-breaking programs such as our SAFE program (Short-term Accommodations for Emergencies) demonstrate our commitment to people and their pets. We continue to help by providing education and outreach to the children and adults of Chicago, helping to strengthen the human-animal bond.

We continue to develop our partnerships with the Chicago Animal Shelter Alliance, University of Illinois and various law enforcement agencies. And we are forging new partnerships. One of these is with the Regional Institute of Community Policing (RICP), a center within the University of Illinois Institute of Government and Public Affairs. We recently hosted their Household Pets and Service Animals in Disaster training program. RICP received funding to plan a fall conference to focus attention on the need for communities to provide resources to deal with evictions where pets are involved. We are proud to collaborate and host this timely conference.

As a veterinarian and now the President, I share the same deep connection to the animals and to this esteemed organization with our supporters, staff and volunteers. It is a connection that is born of compassion. I thank you for your help because without you, we would not have been able to reach 110 years. And with you, we will be able to forward our commitment to caring.

Karen on Call

Feature February 2009

I'd like to talk about recent behavior calls/e-mails that seem to have a common thread: boredom. Cats are knocking things over and vocalizing. Dogs are destroying stuff and soiling in the house.

Is everybody going bonkers? Was there an asteroid strike? Did all the animals turn spiteful at once? I smell a conspiracy....

It's actually less sinister and much less exciting than an alien take-over. It's cabin fever. (How about if I put that in scary graphics?) We are having an unusually cold winter and as a result dogs are getting less exercise outdoors. As a consequence, dogs find their own interesting ways to channel this unused energy. They usually make really bad decisions, like turning sofa pillows into toys.

Increasing indoor activity and focusing pent-up, ants-in-your-pants energy can be easy. Instead of just handing your dog his food bowl, have him work for it. Ask your pooch to sit/stay at one end of your home and then call him to you. Ask for another sit before you give your dog permission to dive into his food bowl. Finesse that down/stay that you and your dog always had such trouble with. Teach your dog a new trick like weaving through your legs in a figure eight. Three or four 10-minute periods a day can make a great difference in your dog's behavior.

For cats, it's more their crepuscular nature that is causing them to be more active at odd hours. Cats' body rhythms dictate that they are most active at dawn and at dusk. Since days are shorter in the winter, most owners don't get much of a chance to interact with their cats before they leave or come from work. But once that sun just starts to sneak past the horizon, the kitten has already destroyed that giant and dangerous mouse that cleverly disguised itself as your backpack.

Adding more toys and creating fun-houses are ways to give your cat appropriate outlets for natural behavior. Chase toys are especially effective in offering a substitution for predatory behavior. If you don't have tall cat trees, get one or fashion closet shelves, tops of bookcases, etc. into tall fortresses.

Soon the birds and insects will be back to entertain your cat through the window and you can finally get some rest.

Our website has a new feature on the behavior and training page called Pet Behavior and Training Tips. We discuss topics like the importance of play, recommended toys and how to handle play-biting. We often use behavior hotline inquiries as inspiration, so visit our page and see if anything looks familiar! If you're interested in seeing a specific topic discussed, please drop me a line.

Another productive year

As Chicago's oldest and largest comprehensive open door humane society, The Anti-Cruelty Society has many different departments and programs busy serving both animals and people throughout the year. Here is a look at some of the accomplishments made in fiscal year 2008:

The Anti-Cruelty Society's Animal Adoption Program continued to find new homes for homeless animals in record numbers. We placed 2,210 dogs in new homes or with shelter partners for placement through their respective adoption programs; 3,184 cats were also placed. Not only were animals brought in to the facility by individual owners, but were also transferred to The Anti-Cruelty Society from other animal shelters to take advantage of the high volume of placements achieved by the program.

We opened Charlotte's Cat Corner, our two cage-less cat adoption rooms, in May to expand our cat adoption space. The rooms have been very popular with our adopters and also encourage passersby to come in for a visit.

Our new Aged to Perfection program encourages the adoption of older animals and offers a refund of the adoption fee after 90 days for animals five years of age and older, animals that make wonderful pets but are sometimes ignored because of their age.

Our new SAFE program (Short-term Accommodations for Emergencies) is a program that provides assistance for pet owners in the Chicagoland area who are experiencing a temporary housing crisis such as domestic violence incidents, house fires, medical emergencies, and natural disasters. By providing temporary, short term accommodations we can help prevent owners from relinquishing their pets.

In addition to finding new homes for shelter animals, the Behavior & Training Department was hard at work making sure that pet owners were able to keep the animals they already had, fielding over 2200 animal behavior calls during fiscal year 2008. They also assisted with the management of Charlotte's Cat Corner, instructed shelter staff on ways to manage the dogs in the Bully Buddy Adoption Program, made improvements to the School of Dog Training's Pet Dog Training 101 class, and provided weekly 'pet tips' for the The Anti-Cruelty Society's Web site.

The Anti-Cruelty Society's Veterinary Clinic was busy continuing to set or meet benchmarks in 2008, among them performing 12,431 spay/neuter surgeries, 432 for the Pit Pals Program, which offers free pitbull sterilizations; shelter veterinarians performed 5,331 physical exams for shelter animals; saw 1,361 outpatients; and treated 1,493 cats admitted into our rehabilitation and treatment centers. We also increased the facility's holding capacity for cats with the opening, in March, of the Virginia Butts Berger Cat Clinic. This new rehabilitation and treatment clinic, our second, allows us to help us treat and save more cats. Cats and kittens suffering from illness and infection are housed in the new clinic while they receive veterinary treatment and attention from our compassionate staff. Once they recover, the cats go on to the adoption room where they will wait to find their forever families.

The Volunteer Department continued to make significant contributions to the daily operations of the shelter. With 506 active volunteers donating a total of 22,786 hours of their time, many shelter services were supported by these dedicated individuals. Shelter volunteers helped facilitate adoptions and animal socialization, assisted the clinic staff by handling animals for physical exams, provided support in the Bruckner Rehabilitation and Treatment Center and the Virginia Butts Berger Cat Clinic, provided support for special events, took photos and uploaded profiles for the Petfinder and The Anti-Cruelty Society's Web site adoption galleries, and raised approximately $2000 for the shelter with a Volunteer Rummage Sale.

The Field Service & Investigations Department was active in the Chicago area and suburbs helping to protect animals and assist with enforcement of animal welfare laws. Field Service drivers responded to 3,034 ambulance calls, providing transport for animals in need from both owners and other animal shelters; humane investigators went on 3,569 cruelty investigations, looking into a variety of complaints ranging from animal neglect (e.g., a dog tied outdoors without appropriate shelter) to animal cruelty (e.g., suspicion of dog fighting); they reported 2,076 violations of the Illinois Humane Care for Animals Act; and impounded 1,452 animals.

The Humane Education Department continued its work of furthering the mission of The Anti-Cruelty Society in the community by bringing programs to Chicago area schools and groups. Programs reached a total of 32,495 students/citizens, helping to inform them about the importance of kindness and respect for animals. Our humane educators went to classrooms, attended community events, were invited to speak at conferences, and brought games and activities to summer camps and after-school groups. The department also offered special programs such as the Teen Volunteer Program and the Veterinary Mentoring Program which took approximately 80 high school age students on an exploration of a career in veterinary medicine.

For over 110 years, The Anti-Cruelty Society has been serving the animals of Chicago with its mission to prevent cruelty and promote humane education. Even with all these accomplishments, we look forward to doing even more in the years to come.

"Howl-o-Ween"

The Anti-Cruelty Society and Chicagoland Tails hosted over 25 animal shelters and rescue groups at "Howl-o-Ween" on Saturday, October 25 at Navy Pier for a CASA (Chicagoland Animal Shelter Alliance) adoption event. Pet lovers from around Chicago were welcome to bring their costumed canines or to come find a boo-tiful pet to adopt.

Pets and their people enjoyed a howling good time and many treats including: a 2,500-square-foot obstacle course provided by K9 University, a huge walking track, pet massages, Doga (Dog Yoga) by Lake Shore Athletic Club, animal rescue by the Chicago Fire Department Marine Rescue Unit, CPR demonstrations, pet psychic Denise Zak, animal behavior specialists, Ronald McDonald® Get Movin' show, raffle prizes, a silent auction, more than 50 vendors with the best products for your pet, and appearances by radio personalities and their pets. "River," the German Shepherd received great applause when he appeared with Jim Gantz, who helped in his rescue and adopted River from The Anti-Cruelty Society several years ago.

Howl-o-Ween was a terrific success, with over 60 pets finding new homes.

Howl-iday Party

What a "Howl-iday" it was for The Anti-Cruelty Society when The Suzuki-Orff School of Music made a special appearance at the party. Talented young violinists played beautiful music for the people and their pets. Furry friends from nearby neighborhoods and our adoptable pets enjoyed the festivities, along with families and volunteers.

To everyone's surprise, "Jangles," one of The Anti-Cruelty Society's adorable pets, sang along....on key! "Jangles" understood the true meaning of Howl-iday spirit.

Pet Intuitive Denise Zak matched up

▲ Radio personality JoBo formerly of B96 radio made a special appearance with his pooch, Sox.

The Anti-Cruelty Society alone adopted out 18 dogs and cats. Participating shelters and rescue groups included: A Caring Place Humane Society, Angel 4 Cause Rescue, Chicago Animal Care & Control, Animal Care League, Animal Welfare League, Bombshell Bullies, Catahoula Rescue, Catnap from the Heart, Chicago Canine Rescue, Chicago English Bulldog Rescue, Chicagoland Bully Breed Rescue, Dogs Deserve Better, Fur Keeps Animal Rescue, Great Lakes Mastiff Rescue, Harmony House, Heartland Animal Shelter, IL Weimaraner Rescue, Lake Shore Animal Shelter, New Leash on Life, PAWS Chicago, Puppy Love/Love Cats Pet Rescue, Red Door Animal Shelter, South Suburban Humane Society, The Anti-Cruelty Society, Tree House Humane Society, Windy City Animal Foundation, Wright Way Rescue, and Young at Heart Pet Rescue.

▲ The Chicago Fire Department Marine Unit Rescue Group gave an on-stage presentation led by Sgt. Ron Dorneker. The unit demonstrated life-saving rescue techniques.

▲ River, the dog who made headline news when he was stuck on the ice in the Chicago River, and his rescuer, Police Lt. Jim Gantz, give an on-stage presentation of their story of River's rescue and adoption from The Anti-Cruelty Society. Gantz was a part of the rescue efforts for River and visited him regularly during his rehabilitation and training at The Anti-Cruelty Society. They are now inseparable.

perfect pet personalities with loving families, and helped people and their pets "communicate" and pets were adopted on site.

David Viggiano, Entertainment Reporter at Fox TV's "Good Day Chicago" morning news, stopped by to let everyone know that "Brigid"—his adopted Yorkie from The Anti-Cruelty Society—"is the best dog ever!" He recently adopted a friend for Brigid and we hear all is well for them.

See you next year at this great annual tradition.

The Anti-Cruelty Society is on the (Virtual) Air

Since 1899, The Anti-Cruelty Society has been dedicated to spreading the message of the importance of kindness to animals. Whether it has been through education or community outreach, The Anti-Cruelty Society has striven to reach as many people as possible. To that end, we have partnered with internet video provider YouTube to offer original multimedia content for animal lovers everywhere.

Visitors to www.youtube.com/anticrueltytv can access an on-line library with videos covering a variety of subjects, interviews with The Anti-Cruelty Society's staff, information about the wide-range of services The Society offers, and a series of videos created especially for our volunteers. Future plans for the site include a video gallery of adoptable animals, posting pet care tips from the Behavior and Training Department, and other fun videos featuring the animals and staff of The Anti-Cruelty Society.

As an official non-profit partner of YouTube, The Anti-Cruelty Society is able to take advantage of special 'branding options' within the on-line video community. The AntiCrueltyTV video channel has custom-made banners and graphics that feature former animals from the shelter. The videos can also be found embedded on our web site.

Using the latest technologies available, The Anti-Cruelty Society is able to reach a wider audience and in doing so, help more animals. We encourage all our friends to visit www.youtube.com/anticrueltytv to see us in action. And of course, you can always visit www.anticruelty.org to learn more about our programs and services, view upcoming events, see some of the many animals we have up for adoption, and a whole lot more.

The Anti-Cruelty Society Society's Show

In the fall of 2008, The Anti-Cruelty Society had its own TV show on Chicago Access Network Television. CAN TV is an independent, non-profit organization established in 1983 to administer and promote the use of Chicago's public access channels. They give every Chicagoan a voice on cable television by providing training, equipment, facilities and channel time for Chicago residents and non-profit groups.

The Anti-Cruelty Society utilized the Hotline service featured on CAN TV's channel 21. This enabled us to put produce a once a week 30 minute show during a 13 week series. This weekly show was a live call-in show hosted by one of the two hosts from The Anti-Cruelty Society, Avi Brown, Animal Behavior and Training Assistant, and Alicia Obando, Coordinator of Special Projects.

Each week the show interviewed a different guest and covered a different aspect of The Anti-Cruelty Society. The host and guest would then field calls from the public on that week's topic. The show included such topics as Community Outreach, Humane Investigations, Behavior and Training, The History of The Anti-Cruelty Society, The Foster Program and Socializing Your Dog.

To watch past episodes of this fall 2008 series, go to www.anticruelty.org. The Anti-Cruelty Society looks forward to putting together another 13 week show in the summer of 2009.

Our Facebook Page

There are a number of social networking sites on the internet that help people come together. One of the most popular sites these days is Facebook with a membership numbering in the millions. Referred to as "fb" by regular users, the site contains numerous 'groups' where people with particular interests can join, share their experiences and even support their favorite causes.

Now, companion animal lovers who use "fb" have a place to socialize and support

The Anti-Cruelty Society by joining The Anti-Cruelty Society's Official Facebook Page Group where users can write on our "Wall" to leave comments, share stories of pets they've adopted from our shelter, upload photos, and engage in discussions with the owners of other Anti-Cruelty Alumni. Even if you haven't adopted from us, you can get pet tips from our Behavior and Training Department, information on upcoming events and appearances, and even ask questions of The Anti-Cruelty Society's staff.

To join our Facebook group, type 'The Anti-Cruelty Society's Official Facebook Page' in the "search" field of your Facebook homepage, then click "join group." Once you sign up, you can start interacting with other group members and invite your family and friends to join as well.

We look forward to seeing the comments, stories and photos of animal lovers in Chicago and beyond through our new Facebook page. Join us today!

The Greening of The Anti-Cruelty Society

The Anti-Cruelty Society staff is dedicated to caring for companion animals so we understand how important it is to provide a clean and safe environment for pets. While wasteful practices deplete resources, healthy environmental practices conserve resources and work to keep toxins out of the environment that humans share with companion and wild animals. With this in mind, The Anti-Cruelty Society is adopting new initiatives to help conserve resources and reduce toxins in the environment.

In December, an interdepartmental "Green Team" was formed and charged with assessing the current practices and implementing change wherever possible. The Anti-Cruelty Society is participating in the 2009 Green Office Challenge, a City of Chicago program designed to assist and recognize businesses that adopt environmental practices. Offices that take on the challenge will be "acknowledged for achievement of up to 50 green strategies that address office energy use, waste, transportation, and outreach."

Our immediate plans—with much more to come—include:

- Turn it off! Instead of leaving computers in "sleep mode" staff is being asked to turn computers off at night, turn off monitors if they won't be used for at least 20 minutes, and unplug any electronic items not in use. Lights in unoccupied areas are also being left off more frequently and the feasibility of installing motion-sensors is being investigated.
- Paper practices: Staff has been asked to make double-sided copies whenever possible, think before printing, and write on the backs of unneeded papers. We are also looking into our current office paper and plan to switch to paper with a higher percentage of recycled materials that does not use bleach in its manufacturing.

- Recycled Paper for The Anti-Cruelty Society Magazine: The magazine you are holding is now being printed on paper that is made from 10% post consumer waste and is FSC (Forest Stewardship Council) certified, meaning the paper comes from responsibly managed forests and verified recycled sources.
- Bike to work: This spring, The Anti-Cruelty Society will be installing a bike rack for staff and volunteers to encourage using this alternative mode of green transportation. In addition, we will be participating in the Active Transportation Alliance's Bike to Work Week Challenge June 13-19. For more information, you can visit their website at www.activetrans.org.
- Medical Waste: Our clinic is participating in stainless steel recycling to make future pet products. Clean Earth Pet Systems (CEPS) captures, sterilizes, and recycles veterinary medical waste to make supplies such as bowls. According to Thom Carroll of CEPS, they are reclaiming "40% of the approximately 100 million tons of veterinary medical waste produced annually." For more information on this exciting program, please visit www.vetsharps.com.
- Community Supported Agriculture (CSA): In March, staff and volunteers at The Anti-Cruelty Society will have a chance to learn about what CSA is and will even be able to have their produce delivered to The Anti-Cruelty Society. Growing Power will be giving a lunch presentation explaining concepts such as local and organic produce and offering their services to staff and volunteers. For more information, visit www.growingpower.org.
- Cell Phones: The Anti-Cruelty Society has implemented a cell phone recycling program through

ECO-CELL, a company which pays organizations for collecting used cell phones, batteries, and accessories. 70% of the phones collected will be used by first time, low income users or by selected local organizations, such as Battered Women's Programs for emergency use (911 calls). ECO-CELL runs a strict NO LANDFILL Program. Cell phones and their accessories contain a large number of hazardous substances, including arsenic, cadmium, and lead. These materials can linger in the environment for a long time and have adverse effects on human and animal health. Further information on this program can be found at www.eco-cell.org.

Join us! It's all about choices. Start small.

- Drop off your unwanted cell phone at our Customer Service Desk or at the Veterinary Clinic Desk.
  - Bring a reusable shopping bag to the grocery store next time instead of taking a plastic bag that will end up in a landfill.
  - Re-use produce and plastic shopping bags for cleaning up after your dog instead of purchasing special bags.
  - Stop buying bottled water; instead put a filter on your faucet and purchase a reusable bottle.
  - Switch to rechargeable batteries and properly dispose of used batteries and other hazardous materials.
  - Pass this magazine on to a friend or family member who may be interested in reading it.
- If people perpetually make better choices, the environment will be better for us and all animals.

Keep your eyes open for new updates and ways you can help us conserve.

A Commitment to Caring Since 1899

The work of The Anti-Cruelty Society is supported by gifts from our generous donors, service fees, special events, and income from investments. The Anti-Cruelty Society receives no city, state or federal funds.

A gift to The Anti-Cruelty Society continues a 110-year tradition of helping Chicago's animals.

Contributions to The Anti-Cruelty Society are fully deductible to the extent allowed by law. The Anti-Cruelty Society is a 501(c)(3) Illinois non-profit corporation.

If an employer sponsors a matching program, you may be able to double or triple your gift. Send along a company gift form with your contribution.

Honor Roll of Donors

This year our Annual Report reflects Fiscal Year Gifts only.

These are gifts received from November 1, 2007 through October 31, 2008.

Due to space limitations, our honor roll of donors includes those who have given gifts of $100 or more. Each and every gift we receive is very important and sincerely appreciated. Thank you so much for your support and for caring about the animals.

Upcoming Events

Pet First Aid and CPR Class March 14, 22 & May 9, 17 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

If your pet has a medical emergency, will you be prepared? This course, taught by an American Red Cross authorized instructor, will cover Pet First Aid and CPR techniques. The emphasis will be on cats and dogs. Cat and dog manikins will be used. Please do not bring your pet to class. The course length is 4 hours. The course fee is $25. The Dog First Aid book and DVD set and the Cat First Aid book and DVD set are not included in the course fee. The book and DVD sets will be made available at a cost of $16.95 each.

Pre-registration is required. Class sizes are limited. *See below for registration information and location.

Cancellation Policy:

Cancellations must be received prior to the scheduled class date to receive a full refund. No-shows without prior notice will not be refunded.

Introduction to Feline Massage May 31

1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Pet Massage Therapist, Pam Kuhn, will explain the health benefits of pet massage and demonstrate some of the techniques used. The emphasis will be on feline massage. Please do not bring your cat to this class. Following the demonstration, participants will practice on plush toys.

There is a $10 fee for this class, payable at the door. Pre-registration is required. *See below for registration information and location.

Helping Community Cats Workshop March 16, April 20, May 19 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Are you tired of seeing roaming cats and kittens everywhere in your neighborhood? Do you want to find out how you can help them and stop future generations from being born in your community? Join representatives from Alley Cat Allies and Tree House Animal Foundation for a short workshop on how to educate your neighbors, create a safety-net for the cats and stop the cycle of breeding in your neighborhood. The workshop is free of charge.

To register call Anna Morrison-Ricordati, Alley Cat Allies Volunteer, at (312) 755-0513. *See below for location.

Pet Loss and Grief Support Group March 19 & April 2, 16 & May 7, 21 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Anyone who considers a pet a beloved friend, companion or family member knows the terrible pain that accompanies the loss of that friend. For this reason, The Anti-Cruelty Society is now offering a Pet Loss and Grief Support Group. Having people to talk to who understand what you are going through is an important part of the healing process. The meetings provide a safe, warm place to share and heal our grief. It is a place of openness, honesty and sensitivity to the very real pain of people who know what it means to love and lose a pet.

Meetings will be guided by licensed therapist Connie Stuetzer, L.C.S.W., A.C.S.W. Connie has twenty year's experience in grief support work.

The schedule is subject to change. There is no charge but pre-registration is required. *See below for registration information and location.

*To register, or for more information, call Tammie Bouschor at (312) 644-8338 ext. 344 or contact her via e-mail at tbouschor@anticruelty.org.

*All programs will be held in our Education and Training Center. Enter at 169 W. Grand Avenue. Free parking is available in The Anti-Cruelty Society parking garage. Enter from Wells Street 1/2 block south of Grand Avenue.

Then and Now

Then and Now: The Anti-Cruelty Society's Clinic

The Anti-Cruelty Society opened our first Charity Clinic in 1916, at a time when veterinary facilities for small animals were almost nonexistent. Demand for our clinic services continued to grow throughout the early part of the 1900s, so much so that in 1936 we built a new facility which featured a modern clinic and surgical facilities. Soon after, the clinic became one of the first veterinary facilities in the Midwest to install radiology (X-ray) equipment, which was made available to Chicago veterinarians.

In 1945 more than 9,000 patients were treated in the clinic, one new patient every 12 minutes of the clinic work day.

In 1952, Dr. Jo Anne Schmidt joined the clinic staff. At the time she was one of only 150 female veterinarians practicing in the United States.

In 1975 the Society took the bold step of limiting clinic services to low income clients. In addition to providing free spaying and neutering for all adopted animals, The Society launched a spay subsidy program to assist low income pet owners with the cost of private spaying and neutering.

In 1994, The Anti-Cruelty Society made one of the most significant changes in its history when the Ruth and Henry Dawson Spay Neuter program was changed from coupon redemption at private veterinary clinics to a low cost spay/neuter clinic at our facility. Recognizing that prevention is the future of the humane field, this change allowed us to make a significant impact on Chicago's pet overpopulation problem.

Today, in our 110th year, The Anti-Cruelty Society clinic remains at the forefront of helping Chicago's animals. We still operate our low-income veterinary clinic that offers services to help animal owners in need. And we are proud of the fact that our spay/neuter clinic-which is available to all-is more successful than ever. This past year alone we performed over 12,400 surgeries, helping to reduce the overpopulation problem and save more lives.

Success Story

We wanted to reach out to you and your staff and thank everyone who was involved with Sasha's adoption process. They made us feel comfortable and provided us with the best information to make Sasha's transition from adoption clinic to our condo as smooth as possible.

We were especially pleased with her recovery from surgery (spay); the incision healed quicker than expected and didn't cause Sasha any visible pain or discomfort. Cheers to the doctors at the clinic!

Sasha is fitting in just great with Aly and me! I have attached some photos of Sasha. She seems to love our condo and has already found plenty of places to rest and relax, including our bathroom sink! Please let us know if you post the pictures at the agency or within alumni material. Thanks again.

Sincerely,
Alex DePalma
